Re: Donald Frangipani
Handwriting Expert Services

Donald Frangipani served as a Handwriting Expert on one of my matrimonial cases. In that capacity, Don reviewed and analyzed a handwriting sample and took a handwriting specimen of the party involved. Thereafter, Don rendered a report and decision regarding the author of the handwriting in question and prepared detailed charts and diagrams which were used at the hearing to support his opinion and resulting decision. Don's testimony was extremely helpful and his services were performed in a professional manner.

Very truly yours,
